The ICG is the world's largest international multi-sport youth games and a recognized member of the International Olympic Committee. It is held every year for children aged 12-15 from cities around the world to participate in a variety of sports.

Founded in 1968, the goal of the ICG is to promote peace and friendship through sports to the world's youth. Since that time, 37,000 children have been in competition at 43 summer games and four winter games. About 411 different cities, 86 countries and all five continents have participated in the games.
